

UTE MOUNTAIN TRIBAL PARK
TURNING RED TAIL HAWK TOUR
To Morris Three and She House Cliff Dwellings

P.O. BOX 109
TOWAOC, COLORADO 81334
(970) 565-3751 EXT. 330
Direct phone: (970) 565-9653

Website: www.utemountaintribalpark.info

E-MAIL: utepark@fone.net Tribal Park Visitor Center: Corner of Highway Junction 160/491

Main Tribal Park Office: 480 Sunset Blvd., Towaoc, Colorado

Operating hours: 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Mountain Standard Time

AUGUST 8, 2020

The Ute Mountain Tribal Park presents to the public the Turning Red Tail Hawk Tour to Morris 3 Cliff Dwelling on August 8, 2020. The tour of Morris 3 Cliff Dwelling will be offered at 9:00 a.m. starting at the Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center.

There is physical activity which involves a climb of four ladders and 4.5 mile hike to Morris 3 Cliff Dwelling in Johnson Canyon. This tour has a limit of twenty people and takes approximately 5 to 7 hours.

The starting location is at the Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center/ Museum. Tour participants must be at the center thirty minutes before the tour starts.

Tour Fee is $38.00 per person
Transportation is free on a first-come first-served basis.
Each van seats up to 15 people.

*Tour area is not handicapped accessible.
Children rates do not apply to this special tour.
Reservations required.*

Note: Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center does not accept debit or credit cards. Accepted are personal checks, cash, money order and travelers checks. For more information check our website at www.utemountaintribalpark.info , call 970-565-3751 ext. 330 or 970-565-9653. Tours may be canceled due to bad weather and impassable roads. Tours begin at the Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center/ Museum located at highway junction 160/491 (formerly highway junction 160/666). Visitors should have their own insurance. Ute Mountain Ute Tribe/ Ute Mountain Tribal Park and its employees are not liable for illnesses, accidents, thefts, and injuries.

- * Morris 3 is a Pueblo II – III Ancestral Pueblo site.
- * This site was excavated by Earl Morris in 1913.
- * The site was stabilized in the year 2008 by Chris Zeller, contract archaeologist for Ute Mountain Tribal Park, and Ute Mountain Tribal Park stabilization crew.
- * Morris 3, Archaeological site preservation project was funded by Colorado Historical Society, Ute Mountain Ute Tribe, and Ute Mountain Tribal Park.
- * On May 2, 1972, the Mancos Canyon Historic District was listed in the National Registrar of Historic Places. The boundaries basically include the present Ute Mountain Tribal Park. Historic District numbers 5LP305 and 5MT4342.

UTE MOUNTAIN TRIBAL PARK

P.O. BOX 109
TOWAOC, COLORADO 81334

PORCUPINE HOUSE CLIFF DWELLING AND ATLATL POINT TOUR

(970) 565-3751 EXT. 330

Direct phone: (970) 565-9653

Website: www.utemountaintribalpark.info

E-MAIL: utepark@fone.net

Tribal Park Visitor Center: Corner of Highway Junction 160/491

Main Tribal Park Office: 480 Sunset Blvd., Towaoc, Colorado

Operating hours: 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Mountain Standard Time

AUGUST 22, 2020

The Ute Mountain Tribal Park presents to the public the Porcupine House Cliff Dwelling and Atlatl Point Tour on August 22, 2020. The tour will start at the Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center from 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p. m.

There is physical activity which involves a climb of two ladders and 1 mile hike to round trip to Porcupine House Cliff Dwelling. Atlatl Point trail is a physical upward and downward round trip trail hike of approximately 500 feet. Both tour area will take approximately 7 to 8 hours.

The starting location is at the Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center/ Museum. Tour participants must be at the center fifteen to thirty minutes before the tour starts.

Tour Fee is $38.00 per person
Transportation is free on a first-come first-served basis.
Each van seats up to 15 people.

*Tour area is not handicapped accessible.
Children rates do not apply to this special tour.*

Reservations required. Visitors are advised to have their lunch, drinking water, and wear comfortable hiking gear. And have full tank of fuel if they are planning on driving their own high clearance vehicle into the park.

Note: Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center does not accept debit or credit cards. Accepted are personal checks, cash, money order and traveler's checks. For more information check our website at www.utemountaintribalpark.info, call 970-565-3751 ext. 330 or 970-565-9653. Tours may be canceled due to bad weather and impassable roads. Tours begin at the Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center/ Museum located at highway junction 160/491 (formerly highway junction 160/666). Visitors should have their own insurance. Ute Mountain Ute Tribe/ Ute Mountain Tribal Park and its employees are not liable for illnesses, accidents, thefts, and injuries.

*The Ute Mountain Utes are the Weenuche band of Utes, one of the seven original Ute bands that inhabited the entire state of Colorado. The Ute Mountain Utes presently reside on their reservation in southwestern Colorado.

*Ancestral Pueblo, or Anasazi, were people of the Pueblo culture. These Pueblo people resided in the four corners' areas (Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Arizona) until about 1300 AD. The Puebloan tribes are presently living in the states of Arizona and New Mexico and are the descendants of the Ancestral Pueblo.

*On May 2, 1972, the Mancos Canyon Historic District was listed in the National Registrar of Historic Places. The boundaries basically include the present Ute Mountain Tribal Park. Historic District numbers 5LP305 and 5MT4342.