

UTE MOUNTAIN TRIBAL PARK TURNING RED TAIL HAWK TOUR To Morris Three And She House Cliff Dwellings

AUGUST 11, 2018

The Ute Mountain Tribal Park presents to the public the Turning Red Tail Hawk Tour to Morris 3 and She House Cliff Dwellings. The tour will be offered at 9:00 a.m. (limit of 30 people) and 10:00 a.m. (limit of 30 people) starting at the Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center.

There is physical activity which involves a climb of four ladders and 4.5 mile hike to Morris 3 Cliff Dwelling. The She House Cliff Dwelling involves a climb of two ladders (3 foot and 6 foot tall ladders) and short walk into the dwelling. This tour takes approximately 5 to 7 hours.

The starting location is at the Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center/ Museum. Tour participants must be at the center thirty minutes before the tour starts.

Tour Fee is $48.00 per person
Transportation is free on a first-come first-served basis.
Each van seats up to 15 people.

*Tour area is not handicapped accessible.
Children rates do not apply to this special tour.
Reservations required.*

Note: Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center does not accept credit cards. Accepted are personal checks, cash, money order and traveler's checks. For more information check our website at www.utemountaintribalpark.info, call 970-565-3751 ext. 330 or 970-565-9653. Tours may be canceled due to bad weather. Tours begin at the Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center/ Museum located at highway junction 160/491 (formerly highway junction 160/666). Ute Mountain Ute Tribe/ Ute Mountain Tribal Park and its employees are not liable for illnesses, accidents, thefts, and injuries.

- * Morris 3 is a Pueblo II – III Ancestral Pueblo site.
- * This site was excavated by Earl Morris in 1913.
- * The site was stabilized in the year 2008 by Chris Zeller, contract archaeologist for Ute Mountain Tribal Park, and Ute Mountain Tribal Park stabilization crew.
- * Morris 3, Archaeological site preservation project was funded by Colorado Historical Society, Ute Mountain Ute Tribe, and Ute Mountain Tribal Park.
- * She House Cliff Dwelling had minor stabilization work in the early 1970's.

UTE MOUNTAIN TRIBAL PARK PORCUPINE HOUSE CLIFF DWELLING AND ATLATL POINT TOUR

AUGUST 18, 2018

The Ute Mountain Tribal Park presents to the public the Turning Red Tail Hawk Tour to Morris 3 Cliff Dwelling and Atlatl Point on August 18, 2018. The tour will be offered at 9:00 a.m. (limit of 30 people) and 10:00 a.m. (limit of 30 people) starting at the Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center.

There is physical activity which involves a climb of two ladders and 1 mile round trip hike to Porcupine House Cliff Dwelling. Atlatl Point trail is a physical upward and downward round trip trail hike of approximately 500 feet. These two tour areas takes approximately 7 to 8 hours.

The starting location is at the Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center/ Museum. Tour participants must be at the center thirty minutes before the tour starts.

Tour Fee is $48.00 per person
Transportation is free on a first-come first-served basis.
Each van seats up to 15 people.

*Tour areas are not handicapped accessible.
Children rates do not apply to this special tour.
Reservations required.*

Note: Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center does not accept credit cards. Accepted are personal checks, cash, money order and travelers checks. For more information check our website at www.utemountaintribalpark.info , call 970-565-3751 ext. 330 or 970-565-9653. Tours may be canceled due to bad weather. Tours begin at the Ute Mountain Tribal Park Visitor Center/ Museum located at highway junction 160/491 (formerly highway junction 160/666). Ute Mountain Ute Tribe/ Ute Mountain Tribal Park and its employees are not liable for illnesses, accidents, thefts, and injuries.